SENIORS PAINT NEW RESERVED PARKING SPOTS

For the first time, seniors were able to buy their own personal parking spaces and were given a chance to paint them. DECA and FBLA held a fundraiser, and seniors could pay $20 to reserve their spot. Many drew inspiration for their parking spots based on activities or sports they participated in throughout high school, their favorite video games, or quotes from the past year. In this video, the Seniors describe what their designs are and what they mean to them. (Video by Carson Ramirez)
