

1. What is your name and how do you spell it?
2. What is your role at Connections to success?
3. How did you first become involved with the organization?
4. What is the primary mission of Connections to Success?
5. What are some the biggest reasons why some struggle to overcome poverty?
6. What are some of the biggest obstacles some of your participants face?
7. How do these obstacles make it difficult to find a job?
8. What are some obstacles that you see with participants in the St. Charles/St. Louis area?
9. What does it mean to be “economically independent”?
10. What are some of the programs Connections to Success has in place to help their participants succeed?
11. Describe your process into helping someone become economically independent.
12. How does the work done through Dress for Success help those who participate find jobs?
13. How does the confidence given to your participants through your programs help them in their futures?
14. Why are professional development skills so important?
15. How does the skills you teach through your programs make a difference when employers are looking at your participants?
16. What effects can economic independence have on children and families?
17. Why do you love your job?
18. How important is it to you personally to be able to get the opportunity to change lives in your job?
19. What improvements do you think we can make, as a society, to help everyone become successful and economically independent?
20. Why do you think helping others to overcome their disadvantaged situations is so important?